COSTA BLANCA MOUNTAINWALKERS - WALK DESCRIPTION

Concrete takes over from the gravel as it goes more steeply uphill and passes a gate on the L and continues between a wall and fence to reach a bend to the R with a footpath going off to the L with a sign (Asmaites). Take this footpath uphill.	1.8km 23mins
When you reach a short level section across terraces there is a fork at which you turn R.	2km 29mins
Follow this path steadily uphill and around to the L now until it reaches a track. Go directly across this on the continuation of the path and eventually reach a second track. Turn R here.	2.8km 48mins
Follow this down under some crags on the LHS, ignore a vaguer track uphill to the L and reach a junction with a signpost (to the L) which you ignore and continue ahead and downhill.	3.6km 57mins
Ignore any junctions now and keep straight ahead and down the valley towards our point of departure.
Pass a large water deposito and join tarmac to wander between rural casitas. Now the village of Adsubia becomes clearly visible with the church tower in the middle.
Walk along the ridge line and at a junction with a rough building on the R and 2 tracks going off to the R, ignore these and turn L still on the tarmac.	4.8km 1hr 12mins
Soon you re-join your outbound route and continue ahead on a level road back to the plaza with the steps and cross where you turn half left to drop down the hill and then R to find you car.

Walk Recommendations or restrictions	None
