Directions to Start	From Ibiza town head W on the PM803 as far as Sant Josep and here at a marked junction turn L towards Es Cubells. This road leads straight to the sea so take care to watch for the R turn towards Cala d'Hort and proceed until near the top of the pass. Here find a large parking area just by a broad track on the L.
Short walk description	Although quite a short walk this possibly has the best views from the island with Es Vedra – a rocky stack – in sight behind you for most of the outward journey. Best done this way around as descending your ascent route would be hazardous.
Full Walk Description		Elapsed Walking Time/Distance so far
From your parked car walk along the road cresting the rise and starting to walk downhill.
The second left track is marked with a No Through Road sign but this is where you go.		260m, 3.5min
Follow this past a small casita with many barking dogs (who did no damage other than intimidate in 2017!!).
Now continue past a semi ruined building and the track narrows to reach a viewpoint overlooking the cliffs and Es Vedra out in the sea.		1.3km, 19min

COSTA BLANCA MOUNTAIN WALKERS - WALK DESCRIPTION

At this point you have gone too far (!!) so retrace your steps a matter of 20m or so to find a thin track now rising on your RHS between juniper bushes and once through these the path is much clearer.

Follow this up always quite close to the RH edge with fantastic views over the edge and behind you.

It is very steep but eventually you move slightly L avoiding the cliffs and tackle the final ascent to reach the summit.

Soak up the views and continue a few metres more to reach a trig point.

Now the path descends and a few metres lower ignore the fainter path L at a fork and continue nearer the edge.

Eventually this moves L, crosses a deep barranco and emerges at a clearing with parked camper can and general encampment materials.

Walk a few metres through this and turn L onto a track.

Drop down a few metres to join a much broader track and here turn L.

Ignore a fork L and continue to also ignore a turn R just after some dwellings on the RHS.

Curve around to the RHS and across a junction and immediately over a deep barranco and soon arrive at your parked car.

2.2km, 39min

2.9km, 53min
